WINSTON-SALEM, N. C., November 17.

-The Southern Railway officials arrived here in a special train at 3:05 and left at 4:30 for Greensboro. A large delogation of representative citizens met the visitors at the Union Passenger Station, and extended to them a hearty welcome. The officials were escorted to carriages and driven over the city for half an hour, after which the visitors spent half an hour or more most pleasantly at the rooms of the Twin City Club.

Mr. J. C. Buxton welcomed the guests, assuring them that this community appreciated their visit. He also told what Winston-Salem had done for the Southern Railway and how it had outgrown both passenger and freight facilities.

President Spencer, Vice-President Finley and Ackert responded to the address of welcome and the latter gave assurance that plans were being made to give Winston-Salem better facilities, and promising that they would be put in operation within a year.

Will you give us a better freight deport? Mr. Buxton asked, "Necessities will come first and insuries next," replied Mr. Ackert, Mr. H. C. Eckles, compiroller of the Currency, also made a brist address,

Treasurer Henrico County.
